Admissions Guidelines

1. Admissions Policies

College of Global Liberal Arts

The College of Global Liberal Arts at Ritsumeikan University seeks students who have the following abilities, skills, interests, and aspirations:

- (1) Students who possess English language ability and basic academic skills to intellectually discuss various issues in global society (specific English requirements are listed separately).
- (2) Students who have a strong interest in various issues in global society, respect diverse cultures and values, and can work cooperatively with others.
- (3) Students who aspire to become global leaders who will proactively and practically solve various issues in global society by mastering academic skills and deepening their understanding of academic fields related to their interests and career paths through humanities, social sciences, and science and technology.

Joint Degree Program, College of International Relations

The Global International Relations Joint Degree Program is looking for globally minded students who can be effective leaders both on and off campuses. We expect our graduates to take an active role in their professional fields and contribute directly and indirectly to the deepening of mutually beneficial relations between the U.S., Japan and the rest of East Asia, as well as to the peace and prosperity of the international community.

College of International Relations

In the Department of International Relations within the College of International Relations, students systematically learn three types of essential approaches to understanding global society: language skills, theories, and area studies. Throughout this learning process, students develop a high level of foreign language proficiency and the ability to think logically, while cultivating deeper intellectual capacities to better understand cultural diversity. The college seeks students who have the will to act independently and the desire to contribute to society in terms of governance, economics, culture, and peace.

To this end, the college admits students who already possess the following abilities and motivations:

- (1) Basic academic skills necessary to analyze problems facing global society
- (2) A deep interest in the problems facing global society and the self-motivation to pursue them
- (3) Language abilities necessary to understand and explain the problems facing global society

College of Policy Science

The College of Policy Science seeks students who will challenge themselves both in practical and scholastic terms, with the aim of creating a better society through policy solutions. Thus, the College expects students to have the following academic abilities and interests upon admission:

- (1) Basic academic knowledge acquired at high school or equivalent educational institutions.
- (2) Interest in acquiring thinking skills and abilities for problem solving based on that knowledge.
- (3) Willingness to design and work on practical solutions to a wide-range of social problems.

College of Information Science and Engineering

Education and research at the College of Information Science and Engineering encompasses a wide range of topics. These relate to the core knowledge of technologies, and their application at the cutting edge.

Our educational goal is to develop specialists and researchers with expertise in utilizing computers to obtain effective and innovative solutions to unforeseen issues. Graduates of CISE will be ready to play the leading role in a variety of organizations at the global level.

With these objectives in mind, we welcome prospective students with the following qualities and attitudes.

- (1) The prospective students should have acquired logical thinking skills and fundamental understanding of mathematics and natural sciences necessary to pursue studies in information science.
- (2) For those who are to choose one of the six courses provided in Japanese, they should have sufficient Japanese proficiency to understand and produce Japanese texts, as well as the fundamental proficiency in English. For those who are to be enrolled in the course provided in English, they should be able to display sufficient command of English to pursue academic studies in the language.
- (3) They should have acquired academic underpinnings to start a wide range of studies at the tertiary education level.
- (4) They should have wide and keen interests in academic fields related to information technology.
- (5) They should be strongly motivated to acquire the fundamentals of programming.
- (6) They should have sincere motivation to acquire specialized and advanced knowledge and technologies, ethical attitudes, and leadership.
- (7) They should be fully aware of the significance of skills for problem-identifying/solving and those for communication, and are ready to improve those skills to the more advanced levels.

2. Target of This Admission Method

GLA

The College of Global Liberal Arts provides students with the comprehensive liberal arts education in English required for our globalized times. We strive to produce graduates who can put knowledge into practice to take the initiative in identifying and solving problems and can keep learning throughout their lives in a globalized society. We are looking for students who are eager to collaborate with others in a multi-cultural environment through dual-degree courses offered in Japan and Australia, and are strongly motivated to take on leadership roles contributing not only to Japan and Asia, but to the entire international community.

The dual undergraduate degree program is offered jointly by GLA at Ritsumeikan University and the Coral Bell School of Asia Pacific Affairs at The Australian National University (ANU). The two undergraduate degree programs together form an extensive, coherent system of learning, in which students aim to earn two degrees, one from each university. They study at both campuses, taking courses with the aim of generating synergies between the two degrees.

This admission method is designed to admit students with the academic aptitude, skills and interests stated in the GLA admission policy. Decisions to admit students are made based on academic records and the essay.

JD Program

The American University - Ritsumeikan University Joint Degree Program aims to foster students who are able to appropriately understand a wide range of issues in global international society from a perspective of Global International Relations Studies and contribute to problem solving or peaceful and sustainable development. In addition, the admission method aims to recruit students who have an interest in those issues, who would like to study both in Japan and the U.S., and who are highly motivated to work with an international perspective in various fields such as government, economics, and culture in the future.

In this JD Program, Ritsumeikan University's College of International Relations and American University's School of International Service jointly offer a single curriculum and bachelor's degree for the qualified students. The universities have constructed a sophisticated systematic curriculum which will offer students a new kind of international education, in order to achieve the common goal for talent development.

GS Major

The Global Studies Major within the College of International Relations aims to allow students to acquire an advanced understanding of international relations through specialized courses delivered in English. Students in the GS Major have the opportunity to discuss and study issues currently faced by the international community as part of a diverse student body. It is expected that students will have a strong desire to take full advantage of the opportunities offered by studying in English together with students of different backgrounds and that they will develop their abilities within this diverse academic community.

The College of International Relations seeks students who will actively participate in all aspects of their academic lives. It is looking to attract students who wish to make use of their knowledge of international relations and their experiences at the college to take on jobs in which they can form a bridge between their home countries, Japan, and the rest of the world as “globally minded leaders” working beyond borders.

CRPS Major

The Community and Regional Policy Studies Major of the College of Policy Science encourages students to acquire the skills necessary to solve policy problems in current societies.

The purpose of this major is to motivate students to learn how to better understand the issues which have been occurring in communities and/or regions in the local and global context, how to elucidate the cause of the problems as well as how to create solutions, especially through the understanding of social science theories and research methodologies.

As it is expected that students from all over the world will enroll in this major, ample opportunities will be given to study a wide variety of global issues using multiple perspectives.

Students will study the following subject areas within the three CRPS programs: Sustainable Urban Policy, Regional Economy and Development; Multi-level Governance.

We are seeking ambitious and innovative students who are dedicated to developing a better future and to solving various global policy issues with the knowledge and experience acquired in our English-based major.

ISSE Course

The College of Information Science and Engineering aims to educate students to become professionals who are able to play active and leading roles in information technology teams anywhere in the world. In the Information Systems Science and Engineering Course, an English-mediated, project-based program, students will have ample opportunity to acquire skills and knowledge in information systems engineering necessary to function as innovative and competent specialists. After successful completion of the program, graduates are expected to be able to apply engineering knowledge acquired to resolve current and future issues societies face globally.

We seek to attract students from all over the world who are determined to take full advantage of the learning opportunities and diverse environment offered in the ISSE Course, with an aim to acquire leadership skills to play key roles in a globalized society. Prospective applicants to the program must have high school level knowledge of mathematics and science, and also English proficiency sufficient to understand college-level lectures and exercises. The applicants must be eager to learn new technology, and be able to work both individually and as part of a team.

- Transaction fees must be paid by the applicant.
- Payment can be made via TAO. The application fee is referred to as an "Examination Fee" on TAO.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- The University will NOT accept an application unless we are able to confirm receipt of the application fee by the designated application deadline.
- The application fee will not be refunded in any circumstances, including overpayment, as it will cover the administrative cost of application processing and eligibility evaluation.
- Applicants who wish to pay via wire transfer must contact the International Admissions Office at least one week before the relevant application deadline.

8. Screening

(1) Screening Process

GLA

The decision on an application will be made based on a review of application documents.

JD Program* CRPS Major ISSE Course

An overall assessment will be made based on the 1st screening (document screening) and the 2nd screening (interview). An interview will be conducted for applicants shortlisted in the 1st screening.

JD Program Assessment will be made by both Ritsumeikan University and American University.

GS Major

An overall assessment will be made based on a document screening alone, or a document screening and interview. An interview will be conducted for invited applicants.

(2) Interview

JD Program GS Major CRPS Major ISSE Course

Interviews will be either a web-based interview or a telephone interview.

Details of the interview, such as the interview method, date, and time, will be determined by the University and notified to applicants at least one week before the interview. If you have not received the email by five days before the interview, please contact the International Admissions Office.

- Applicants cannot choose the interview method, date or time.
- Applicants do not need to come to Ritsumeikan University for the interview.
- The handling of lateness is defined. Make sure to check the information sent to the e-mail address registered in the application system.
- Please be prepared to connect to the online interview by the designated start time. If you do not connect to the interview and fail to respond to calls from the University within the time span specified in the interview information provided by the University, you will be deemed absent.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- The interview dates may be changed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- The University will not bear any responsibility for the cost incurred due to a change of interview date.
- If any changes are made to the interview arrangements, the University will inform the applicants.
- The University will not reschedule interviews for applicants who do not attend the scheduled interview because of illness, accident, or any other reasons.

9. Notification of Results

(1) Notification of Application Number

The application number will be used for identification of applicants throughout the application and enrollment procedures. Applicants will be notified of their application numbers through TAO on:

GLA: the date of notification of results.

JD Program CRPS Major ISSE Course: the date of notification of the 1st screening results.

GS Major: the date of notification of the document screening results.

(2) Notification of Results

The 1st screening result and the final result will be announced through TAO (Click the "View my screening results" button under the completed application) at 9:30 AM on the dates indicated as "1st Screening Result" and "Final Result" in 4. Application Periods and Other Key Dates.

Applicants who are absent from an interview (or leave partway through) will not be considered for screening.

The University will not provide any further information regarding the results.

10. Notes for Applicants

Admissions Support for Applicants with Disabilities or Medical Conditions

If an applicant requires examination accommodations during the admission process due to illness, injury, or disability, please submit an examination accommodations request one month prior to the beginning of the corresponding application period by following the instructions at the following URL:

<https://en.ritsumei.ac.jp/e-ug/apply/examinationaccomodations.html/?version=English>

In case of delay of request submission or depending on the content of the request, accommodations may not be implemented as requested. Information about requests will be shared with relevant sections of the University.

If an applicant wishes to request accommodations for academic and daily life on campus after enrollment, please contact the Disability Resource Center at drc@st.ritsumei.ac.jp or the administrative office of the program (<https://en.ritsumei.ac.jp/contact/>).

Regarding Application Misconduct

1. The following acts are considered misconduct:

- (1) Falsification, fabrication, or plagiarism of information or documents submitted at the time of application
- (2) After acceptance, submission of original documents or certified true copies with discrepancies from documents submitted at the time of application that are considered falsifications or fabrications
- (3) Cheating. For example, placing memos or materials to be referenced during interviews, receiving answers from others, etc.
- (4) Having someone else assume the identity of the applicant to attend an interview or prepare application documents on their behalf
- (5) Assisting other applicants in cheating by giving them information regarding the contents of the interview
- (6) Using electronic devices, such as mobile phones, smartphones, wearable devices (such as smartwatches), electronic dictionaries, or voice recorders during an interview
- (7) Allowing anyone other than the applicant to enter the interview room
- (8) Using a computer for a purpose other than the online interview
- (9) Bringing non-permitted items into the interview room
- (10) During an interview, acting in a suspicious manner, such as frequently taking one's eyes off the webcam
- (11) During an interview, operating a cell phone or smartphone for purposes other than receiving calls or communications from the University
- (12) Sharing the URL or link to an online interview with anyone other than the applicant
- (13) Filming, recording, videotaping or distributing information to outside parties during the interview time

2. In addition to the acts above, the following may also be considered misconduct. If an applicant does not follow the instructions of the University and is recognized to have committed misconduct, the treatment will be the same as above.

- (1) Making false statements regarding the interview for one's benefit or the benefit of other applicants
- (2) Disobeying the instructions of the interviewers or staff
- (3) Any other acts that may impair the fairness of the interview

3. Treatment of Misconduct:

- An applicant who commits any of the above acts of misconduct will not be eligible to apply for the same enrollment year. In addition, all previously submitted applications for the same enrollment year will also be invalidated. The application fee will not be refunded. A criminal complaint may also be filed with the police.
- If application misconduct is found after enrollment, enrollment will be revoked.

GLA

- (1) At the College of Global Liberal Arts (GLA), all students aim to earn two bachelor's degrees within four years — one from Ritsumeikan University (RU) and one from The Australian National University (ANU) — under an agreement between the two universities.

The admission evaluation by ANU is conducted after admission to Ritsumeikan University. If admitted by ANU, students will be able to begin taking courses offered by ANU and continue working toward earning degrees from both universities. Students who are not admitted through the admission evaluation by ANU will be transferred to the RU Major (the single degree track) and may pursue the Bachelor of Global Liberal Arts degree awarded by Ritsumeikan University. In such cases, from the second year onward, the tuition fee for the RU Major will apply. This fee is the same as the first-year tuition fee for the RU-ANU Major.

Should changes in circumstances within or outside Australia, or unforeseen personal events, make it impossible for students to enroll in courses at ANU, they will still be able to continue their studies in the RU Major at Ritsumeikan University and pursue the completion of a Bachelor of Global Liberal Arts degree awarded by Ritsumeikan University.

<Admission Evaluation by ANU>

i. English Language Requirement

Students must meet the English language requirements specified in the ANU Policy: English language admission requirements and post-admission support. Details of the policy can be found here:

https://policies.anu.edu.au/ppl/document/ANUP_000408

The admission evaluation by ANU for the English Language Requirement is conducted shortly after admission to Ritsumeikan University. For this evaluation, only English test scores from tests taken on or after April 1, 2025 for April 2027 intake applicants, and on or after September 26, 2025 for September 2027 intake applicants, will be considered. Even if students have met the required English standard at the time of application to Ritsumeikan University, they may be required to submit a new English test score that satisfies the ANU policy in effect at the time of the evaluation.

ii. Academic Requirement

Students must achieve a GPA of 2.00 or higher at Ritsumeikan University. Courses graded as “F” are included in the GPA calculation, while courses officially withdrawn within the designated period are not.

The admission evaluation by ANU for the Academic Requirement is conducted at the end of the semester in which they have taken courses totaling 32 credits (in principle, at the end of the second semester). This evaluation is conducted only once while enrolled at Ritsumeikan University.

- (2) Following the tradition of liberal arts education, GLA strongly encourages students to live in the University dormitory, OIC Global house (OIC G-House). This would provide them with an educational environment promoting ongoing learning outside the classroom and library. The duration of stay at OIC G-House will be until students leave to study at ANU. After returning to Ritsumeikan University, the University will introduce students to resources to help them find housing independently.
- (3) To facilitate students' transition into the program through actual learning experiences, GLA conducts pre-enrollment sessions for students accepted into the dual degree program.
As the GLA curriculum covers diverse disciplines across humanities and sciences, students can customize their academic experiences according to their study interests as well as educational, professional, and personal goals. To prepare for such a new learning environment, students will be provided with information about the GLA curriculum and courses. The sessions also help students become familiar with taking a longer-term perspective in planning their courses of study for the next four years.
*Further details regarding the sessions will be provided to accepted applicants.
- (4) Australian domestic students who hold citizenship of a country other than Australia or New Zealand, including dual citizens, are eligible to apply through Ritsumeikan University. They will be enrolled at ANU as an Australian international student for the duration of the dual degree program. They cannot change their status to an Australian domestic student for the Australian component of the Program. As an Australian international student, they will continue to pay tuition fees to Ritsumeikan University, and will be enrolled at ANU as an international student.

JD Program

- (1) Should changes in circumstances within or outside the United States, unforeseen personal events, or other reasons make it difficult for students to continue taking courses at American University, they will still be able to undergo a selection process of the College of International Relations, transfer from the JD Program to the Department of International Relations, continue their studies at Ritsumeikan University, and pursue the completion of a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations.
- (2) Students of the JD Program are restricted from taking some courses, such as teacher-training courses, foreign language courses other than Japanese language courses, or courses offered by other colleges at Ritsumeikan University due to the JD Program curriculum and structure. Furthermore, students will not earn credit from any other study abroad programs. When students apply for a leave of absence, they may only apply for units of one year (two semesters), not one semester, until they have completed all of the necessary graduation requirements at their non-home university.
- (3) Students who begin their studies at Ritsumeikan University (RU Home Students) will need to be able to submit the Certification of Finances for International Students (CFIS) and supporting financial documents in order to meet visa requirements to enter the United States and enroll at AU. As of the 2026-2027 AU academic year, the amount they must be able to certify is 71,022 USD. This amount is subject to increase each year based on the associated costs (such as tuition, mandatory fees, cost of living, etc.).

GS Major

Students who receive scores below 520 on the TOEFL® ITP test that they take after entering Ritsumeikan University may not be able to take some of the courses required for graduation from the first semester until they achieve 520. They will also have to take intensive English courses to improve their English until they achieve 520.

ISSE Course

In order for applicants to better understand Information Systems Science and Engineering, in addition to completing basic Algebra subjects, taking at least one subject of Physics, Chemistry, Biology, and Computer Science is recommended. However please note that this will not affect the application procedure or university entrance eligibility.

Enrollment Procedures

- Enrollment procedures consist of paying enrollment procedure fees (admission fee and tuition fees) and submitting the required enrollment documents.
- These procedures must be completed within the designated time periods.
- Further information will be instructed to successful applicants with notification of the application results by E-mail.

IMPORTANT NOTE

- If applicants do not complete the procedures by the final date of each period, enrollment into the University will be canceled.

- The admission fee will not be refunded under any circumstances.
- No claims for refund will be accepted on or after April 1, 2027 for April 2027 Enrollment / September 26, 2027 for September 2027 Enrollment.
- For a copy of the designated form, please consult the Refund Policy, which can be found on the "After Admission" website: en.ritsumei.ac.jp/e-ug/apply/afteradmissions.html/.

3. Submitting Enrollment Documents

Certain enrollment documents must be submitted through the online enrollment system while other documents must be submitted by post. Refer to details on the "After Admission" website for successful applicants.

Documents that must be submitted by post

- Successful applicants living outside Japan must use traceable EMS or a courier service (DHL, FedEx, OCS, etc.) to submit enrollment documents.
- Successful applicants living in Japan must use registered express mail (簡易書留速達郵便, Kanikakitome Sokutatsu Yubin) to submit enrollment documents.
- The package containing the enrollment documents must be postmarked or collected by the courier service by designated deadlines.
- Official digital documents can be submitted online directly from the issuing body, such as educational institutions (e.g., high schools), governments, exam boards, or test providers.
- Certain documents such as TOEFL® Score Reports and SAT scores must be sent directly to the University from the official body. Ritsumeikan University's institution codes are as follows:
 - TOEFL®: 0659
 - TOEIC®: 00036602
 - SAT: 5766

4. Common Application Registration (JD Program only)

Common Application (Common App) is an online application system used by over 800 universities in the U.S., including American University (AU). Those who are admitted will be enrolled in both AU and Ritsumeikan University.

After acceptance to the University, Common App registration is required. Those who do not complete the registration will not be allowed to take any courses at AU. The period of registration is shown as below and further details on how to register will be notified to the successful applicants at the time of result notification.

Common Application Registration Period: 2026/11/26 Thu. – 2026/12/24 Thu.

Furthermore, successful applicants will be asked to create an account for the AU portal site and create an E-mail address to be used at AU. Also, successful applicants will be asked for their intention to enroll at AU through the AU portal site. For further details, please check the information E-mail which will be sent out by AU.

Applicants must apply to the Common App with the same name that they use for the RU application.

Admission Fee, Tuition Fees, and Other Membership Fees

1. University Fees and Other Fees for Students Enrolling in 2027

Please refer to the following URL (https://en.ritsumei.ac.jp/e-ug/financial_info/fees.html/) for information on tuition and fees. Please note that until the tuition and fees for students entering in 2027 are finalized, the amounts shown are those applied to students entering in 2026 and are provided for reference only. The information will be updated once the 2027 tuition and fees are confirmed.

Status of Residence in Japan and Procedures to Enter Japan (International Students Only)

1. Status of Residence of International Students

In principle, individuals without Japanese nationality or a valid status of residence in Japan must acquire the status of residence "Student" in order to enter Japan as a university student. International students at Ritsumeikan University are, in many cases, required to possess the status of residence "Student" in order to apply for scholarships.

2. COE and Obtaining a Student Visa

In order to acquire the status of residence "Student", individuals without Japanese nationality must show a "Student" visa at the immigration control when entering Japan. A "Student" visa will be issued at a Japanese embassy or consulate in the country or region of residence.

To apply for a "Student" visa, students will need to submit a "Certificate of Eligibility (COE)". The COE can only be issued by the immigration bureau in Japan (Immigration Services Agency of Japan) when the proxy in Japan, such as the University students intend to enroll at, makes an application on their behalf.

The University will apply for the COE on behalf of the successful applicants from outside Japan only when we judge that a COE is necessary for them and that they meet all the following requirements.

- (1) Applicant is currently living outside of Japan and requires a COE to obtain a "Student" visa.
- (2) Applicant has paid the admission fee, tuition fee(s), and other required fees by the stipulated deadline.
- (3) Applicant has submitted all the required documents by the stipulated deadline and can prove that they have sufficient finances available to cover their period of study.

Before applying for the COE on behalf of the successful applicants, the University must confirm the applicant's intent to enroll. The University considers payment of all required enrollment procedure fees by the successful applicants to be a confirmation of their intent to enroll. Applicants who are to obtain a "Student" visa, must submit the required documents during the "Document Submission 1" period specified in 3. Submitting Enrollment Documents. More information about the procedures relating to acquiring a status of residence in Japan will be provided on the "After Admission" website.

NOTES

- Those with Japanese nationality and those living in Japan who possess a valid Japanese residence card with a valid residence status do not need to apply for a Certificate of Eligibility (COE).
- The University will not provide support for students who intend to apply for visa types other than the "Student" visa.
- For those in Japan on a "Short-Term Stay" travel visa: Ritsumeikan University does not accept applications to change a person's residence status from "Short-Term Stay" to "Student" while in Japan.

1. Ritsumeikan University Tuition Reduction Scholarship for International Students

This scholarship is only for students who possess the status of residence “Student” by the time of enrollment and who need financial support to pursue their study at the University. In principle, a tuition reduction of at least 20% is awarded, with 50% and 100% offered to the most outstanding applicants. The recipients and amount of tuition reduction will be determined based on applicants’ screening results.

 The Tuition Reduction scheme from the 2028 academic year onward is currently undecided.

Please understand that changes from the current configuration, including but not limited to partial discontinuation or revamping of the scheme, may be instituted.

- Students in their second year and above who have fulfilled the grade criteria are able to apply for tuition reduction. Tuition reduction category selection will be based on the grades that the student has obtained.
- GLA: Only Undergraduate Category I is applicable.
- JD Program: This scholarship will be applicable for the period when taking courses and paying tuition fees at Ritsumeikan University.
- Information on other scholarships is also available on the website: en.ritsumei.ac.jp/e-ug/

Tuition Reduction Category	Amount of Tuition Reduction	Number of Students Accepted	Eligibility	Period
