RITSUMEIKAN UNIVERSITY

ASIA-JAPAN RESEARCH INSTITUTE RITSUMEIKAN UNIVERSITY

5th Anniversary

The 5th Anniversary International Symposium of Asia-Japan Research at Ritsumeikan University

Asia, Japan, and the Global Society: Developing Research through Cross-Border Academic Collaboration

Session 2

Islam in Action in Inter-Asian Everyday Lives: Looking beyond Islamophobia

Date and Time

February 25, Thursday,
18:00-20:30 (JST), 09:00-11:30 (UTC), 10:00-12:30 (CET)

Venue

Online, Kinugasa Campus,
Ritsumeikan University, Japan

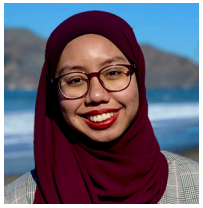
https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_Qrt3cMV6Qb03Aqpnl33liA

Five reports from inter-Asian Everyday Life (Moderator: Dr. Junko Toriyama, Ritsumeikan University)

Junko Toriyama

Associate Professor, College of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University

"De-politicizing Islam, Re-politicizing Islam: An Inter-Asian Attempt"



Nurul Huda Mohd. Razif

PD Researcher, Centre Asie du Sud-Est (CASE), École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales

"The Fabric of Modern Malay, Muslim, and Female Identity: Batik, Female Entrepreneurship and Muslim Consumerism in Contemporary Malaysia"

Kota "Sasha" Oguri

Doctoral Student, Graduate School of Global Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

"Half the Faith in a Global City: A Preliminary Report on Ritual Purification among Muslim Domestic Workers in Hong Kong"

Yukiko Nakamura

Senior Researcher, Ritsumeikan Asia-Japan Research Organization

"Muslim in Indian Movies: Revisiting the representations of Gender and Islam"

Gi Yeon Koo

Research Professor, Seoul National University Asia Center

"Mega-Asia" and Asias: Exploring Iranian Gender Performativity from the Asian Perspective"

Panel Discussion: Between Academic Debates and Everyday Lives

Organized by Asia-Japan Research Institute, Ritsumeikan University