After you have received your COVID-19 vaccination

Be sure to bring in the vaccination voucher sent by the local government at a later date.

- We will affix the sticker for your second vaccination on the above Record of Vaccination, so please be sure to bring your voucher to your second vaccination. This form will serve as your record of vaccination. Please keep it in a safe place.
- After you receive your vaccination voucher from the local government, please bring it to the vaccination venue or the company/organization that organized the workplace vaccination program.
- If you need an official government document proving you have been vaccinated, please contact the municipality listed on your Certificate of Residence (juminhyo). (Please understand that it might take time to issue the certificate.)
