

Joint International Islamic Economic Symposium New Frontiers of Social Welfare and Market Systems in the Post-Capitalist Era: Islamic Economic Perspectives

November 13, Saturday, 2021
14:00-17:00 (JST), 5:00-8:00 (UTC)
12:00-15:00 (Western Indonesia Time)

Venue Online

Keynote
Speech

Dr. Shin YASUDA

Associate Professor, Takasaki City University of Economics, Japan

“Rethinking Leisure in Muslim Societies: Forming a New Islamic Moral Sphere in the Post-Capitalist Era”

Speakers

Dr. Ammar KHASHAN

Associate Professor, Ritsumeikan University, Japan

“Takaful or Islamic Welfare? A Philological, Epistemological, and Research Strategic Inquiry”

Dr. Dian MASYITA

Professor, Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia

“How can the Blockchain Tech Platform Help to Increase Social Welfare? An Islamic Perspective”

Dr. Rahmatina KASRI

Director, Centre for Islamic Economics and Business, Universitas Indonesia

“Can Islamic Social Finance Help to Achieve SDGs? Lessons Learned from Indonesia ”

Organized by

MEXT Grant-in Aid for Transformative Research Areas (A) “Connectivity and Trust Building in Islamic Civilization”
Research Group A01 “Mobility and Universality in the Islamic Economy”
Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (A) “Resurgent Islamic Jurisprudence and New Trends in Politics and Economics in Contemporary Islam: The Mainstream Confronting the Extreme”
Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (B) “Revival and Reconstruction of the Early Normative Theory of Islamic Finance in New Practices”
Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (B) “A Study of Tourism Experiences and the Flow of Religious Resources in Islamic Tourism”
Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (B) “The New Developments of Mutual Welfare Support Systems in Asian Muslim Countries: The Reconstruction of Islamic Economy in Post-Neoliberalist Era”

In cooperation with Kyoto University Islamic Economic Studies Project (KUISES) & Asia-Japan Research Institute, Ritsumeikan University