

Civil Society in Disaster Resilience and Beyond: A Case of the Great East Japan Earthquake

Date:

13:00-14:30 December 1st, 2022

Place: KS306 (Koshinkan)

Speaker: Prof. Yuko Nishide

(Tohoku University)

Yuko Nishide is a Professor at the Graduate School of Economics and Management, Tohoku University. Her main research topics include the role of nonprofit organization, managing and developing human resources in these organizations, diversity and inclusion, and cross-sector partnership. She brings social capital and wellbeing lenses to these topics. She is author of a book entitled Social Capital and Civil Society in Japan (2009, Tohoku University Press).

Admission Free

主催: 立命館大学国際地域研究所
: 立命館大学大学院国際関係研究科
: ASEAN共同体時代の人間の安全保障プロジェクト
(アジア・日本研究推進プログラム)

Inquiries:
kenadach@ir.ritsumeai.ac.jp