

New challenges to Japan's Indo-Pacific vision: COVIDtivity and the 2020s 'Kindleberger moment'

Date:

13:00–14:30 December 8, 2022

Place: KS306 (Koshinkan)

Speaker: Dr. Nikolay Murashkin

A research fellow at the Development Studies Program,
JICA Ogata Sadako Research Institute for Peace and Development

Dr. Nikolay Murashkin is a scholar of Japanese foreign policy and international relations in Asia Pacific. His research interests include Japan's modernisation, development cooperation, foreign policy and economic statecraft, the politics of connectivity infrastructure and finance. He earned his PhD from the University of Cambridge. Nikolay's monograph 'Japan and the New Silk Road' was published in 2020.

Admission Free

主催: 立命館大学国際地域研究所
: 立命館大学大学院国際関係研究科
: ASEAN共同体時代の人間の安全保障プロジェクト
(アジア・日本研究推進プログラム)

Inquiries:
kenadach@ir.ritsumeai.ac.jp