

Perspectives for cooperation of Japan and South Korea to stabilize the volatile security situation, Bilateral and multilateral aspects

Venue: HIRAI Kaichiro Memorial Library Conference Room, Ritsumeikan University Kinugasa Camups

Thursday 16 November 13:00 – 18:00

Friday 17 November 9:00 – 12:30

Opening Remarks and Introduction

Prof. Nakato Sachio
Prof. Michael Reiterer
Prof. Adachi Kenki

I. Stabilizing Northeast Asia – Japan and South Korea cooperation with NATO? - Regional Security an option? - Contribution by the EU?

Chair: Prof. Adachi Kenki
ROK: Prof. Kim Won-soo EU: Dr. Eva Pejsova Japan: Prof. Ishii Masafumi

II. Contributing to economic security, Resilience of supply and value chains

Chair: Prof. Nakato Sachio
ROK: Prof. Park Sang Chul Japan: Prof. Satoh Haruko, Prof. Nakatsuji Keiji

Round Table Discussion:

Kick off: Ahn Chong Ghee + Yabunaka Mitoji + All Participants

III. Cybersecurity, A common challenge, Cyber diplomacy A common tasks

Chair: Prof. Michael Reiterer
ROK: Dr. Kim So Jeong Japan: Prof. Wilhelm M. Vosse

IV. J-pop meets K-pop, the People-to-People (P2P) dimension

Chair: Prof. Deguchi Masahisa Commentator: Prof. Oyama Shinji
ROK: Prof. Kim Myung Joong Japan: Prof. Kimura Kan

Final Roundtable:

Introductory Keynote: Prof. Kimijima Akihiko, “Reconciliation under way?”
Discussant: Ahn Chong Ghee
- followed by general discussion.

Sponsors:

Korea Foundation
International Collaborative Research Promotion Program, Research Division, Research Office at Ritsumeikan University

Organizers:

Center for East Asian Peace and Cooperation Studies, Ritsumeikan Univ.
Peace Education and Research Inst. Kyoto Museum for World Peace, Ritsumeikan Univ.
Institute of International Relations and Area Studies, Ritsumeikan Univ.

