

Exchange Meeting for Young Researchers -RU&HUFS-

On June 16, 2024 (Sunday), an international exchange meeting for young researchers between Hankuk University of Foreign Studies and Ritsumeikan University was held. During the meeting, young researchers active in the East Asian region shared their respective experiences and exchanged views on the current Northeast Asian situation. Although it was not a formal academic conference, the atmosphere was informal and conducive to meaningful exchanges.

Ritsumeikan University's East Asia Peace Cooperation Research Center is committed to creating opportunities for research support and academic exchange among young researchers.
