Mapping the Creative Workforce: Voiceover and Localization Talents in the Philippine Cultural and Creative Industries (CCIs)

This presentation profiles the Filipino voice talents in the localization and voiceover sector, a significant yet underexplored part of the Philippine Creative Industries (CCIs). It examines the voice actors' career paths, their educational backgrounds/training, the industry challenges/problems they encounter, plus the benefits, remunerations, and recognitions they reap which contribute to the discussions on sustainable and equitable policies in Philippine CCIs.
