Prof. Noriko Yamagishi

"Thank You for Your Attention:
A Journey from Curiosity to Gratitude"

From a childhood dream inspired by Marie Curie to an international career in cognitive psychology and neuroscience, this lecture reflects on the lessons learned through decades of research on attention, visual perception, and the transformative power of gratitude.

Please join me as I share my journey, explore the science behind what captures our focus and fills our hearts, and discuss how curiosity and thankfulness shape both our minds and lives.
