

Understanding Scandal in Japan

Media Production, Ritual Performance, and the Fuji TV controversy

Date:

13:10-14:45 January 8, 2026

Place: KS306 (Koshinkan)

Speaker: Igor Prusa

Ambis University Prague & Metropolitan University Prague

Igor Prusa, Ph.D. et Ph.D. is a Czech scholar in Japanese studies and media studies, currently affiliated with Metropolitan University Prague. After receiving his second Ph.D. from The University of Tokyo in 2017, he worked at the Czech Academy of Sciences and taught at the University of Vienna, University of Zurich, and Tokyo Metropolitan University. His research interests include Japanese media scandals and anti-heroism in popular fiction. His book debut "Scandal in Japan: Transgression, Performance and Ritual" was released by Routledge in 2024. Apart from his academic activities, Igor Prusa is a guitarist and music composer in a Japan-themed band, Nantokanaru.

Admission Free

主催: 立命館大学国際地域研究所
: 立命館大学大学院国際関係研究科
: 国際人口移動時代における寛容な社会創出プロジェクト
(アジア・日本研究推進プログラム)

Inquiries:
kenadach@ir.ritsumei.ac.jp