

Academic Year 2022 (GLA) - Summary of Budget Achievement for Education Improvement

The college of Global Liberal Arts provides support for educational and research activities of students through the following efforts in the Educational policy budget on Academic Year 2022.

Enhancement of Academic Advising

◆ Objective: Academic Advisors in the Academic Advising Center (AAC) provide students in the college with various supports to ensure that they can make decisions based on sufficient information during their four years of study. Efforts are being made to enhance and improve the level of advising for each student so that it is appropriate and precise.

◆ Expenses: Honorarium and other expenses related to inviting external lecturers, Reference material expenses, Zendesk system operation fees for the Academic Advising Database

◆ Outcome: Strengthening of the advising system by academic advisors.

Establishing the Writing Coaching system

◆ Objective: The College of Global Liberal Arts conducts Writing Workshops with invited lecturers in order to improve students' writing skills. Moreover, by assigning a Writing Coach to provide individual counseling on the paragraph writing process of report writing, it promotes an educational environment to encourage self-directed learning.

◆ Expenses: Honorarium and other expenses related to inviting external lecturers, Reference material expenses

◆ Outcome: The Writing Workshop was offered to all students in first semester of enrollment, and the Writing Coach was used by multiple students.

Inviting Guest Speakers for Lecture Courses

◆ Objective: The College of Global Liberal Arts emphasizes the importance of broad knowledge and exposure to the latest findings in a variety of fields in order to cultivate practical and creative problem-solving skills in response to various issues in modern society. We enrich learning by inviting guest speakers in fields beyond the scope of course instructors alone.

◆ Expenses: Honorarium and other expenses related to inviting external lecturers.

◆ Outcome: 22 guest speakers were invited for 13 courses

Allocation of Lecture TAs

◆ Objective: In order to achieve the aim of fostering talents, the School of Global Liberal Arts allocates TAs under the guidance of course instructors to support students in better understanding the classes and promoting the creation of a high-quality education environment.

◆ Expenses: Costs related to hiring TAs

◆ Outcome: Assigned 5 TAs for 5 subjects providing a high-quality education